Erica Kuhlmann, D.O.

COVID ICU Medical Director, Chief of Staff, Director of Pulmonary Medicine, M Health Fairview (MN)

Dr. Erica Kuhlmann trained in Chicago for medical school and fellowship, then moved to Minneapolis to be close to family. She now is the Chief of Staff and Director of Pulmonary Medicine at Bethesda Hospital. Through her conversion of Bethesda Hospital to a COVID-only facility, she became the COVID ICU Medical Director. She then became the system COVID ICU Medical Director. She also worked clinically as a pulmonary and critical care doctor throughout this time. She has an amazing little dog named Ozzie who keeps her sane with multiple walks a day.
