

ASPR TRACIE Speaker Series
Brief Speaker Biographies

Healthcare Operations During the COVID-19 Pandemic Speaker Series

The Role of the Kentucky National Guard on COVID-19 Response

LTC Curtis Persinger

Commander, 198th Military Police Battalion

Director of Military Support, Joint Force Headquarters, KYNG

Commander Persinger has been serving in the military for nearly 20 years. He currently commands the 198th Military Police Battalion and serves as the Director of Military Support for the Kentucky National Guard. In this role, he oversaw the entire duration of Kentucky's National Guard COVID-19 response that included providing non-clinical medical support to healthcare facilities across the state and assisting food banks.